11.00 am  INTRODUCTION: Dave Roberts (Alcohol Research UK)

11.10 am  PANEL 1: HOW DO DRINKERS LEARN TO DRINK?
Rachel Brown, Cardiff University: Learning to be a better drinker: staff and student expectations of experiential learning in a university setting

Lisa Di Lemma, University of Liverpool: How do we control an unsuitable tendency? The effects of Cue Avoidance training and Inhibitory Control training on alcohol consumption in the laboratory

Graeme Knibb, University of Liverpool: All in the mind? The effect of beliefs about alcohol on alcohol binges

12.10 pm  PANEL 2: EXPERIENCES OF HEAVY DRINKING
Hannah Rose, King’s College London: Characterisation of drinking patterns in adolescents attending Accident & Emergency departments in England

Lois Styles, University of Southampton: Understanding the Narratives of Alcohol Related Liver Disease

Samantha Wilkinson, University of Nottingham: “It ruins your night though … if one of your mates gets too drunk, cos then you have to look after them”: Careful and Careless Drinking Geographies

Emma Davies, Oxford Brookes University: Going overboard: Exploring the meaning of “binge drinking” and alcohol related harm in young people aged 16-18

1.30 pm  LUNCH
2.15pm  PANEL 3:  SHAPING DRINKING BELIEFS AND BEHAVIOURS
Natasha Clarke, University of Liverpool:  The effects of glass labels on consumption

Lisa Schölin, University of Stirling:  Parents’ and midwives’ views of pregnancy drinking guidelines in England and Sweden

Alexandra Wright, University of Edinburgh:  Complex policy implementation:  emerging findings from a case study of Scotland’s Alcohol Strategy

3.15pm  Coffee Break

3.30pm  PANEL 4:  UNDERSTANDING RECOVERY
Sophie Chambers, University of Southampton:  Soberistas – Understanding a new form of Mutual Aid (SUMA)

Dr Wulf Livingston, Bangor University:  Responding to Orford:  Diverse methodological aspirations

Lucy Dorey, University of Southampton:  Journeys of recovery following a hospital based alcohol detoxification programme:  a mixed methods study

4.30pm  CLOSING REMARKS:  James Nicholls (Alcohol Research UK)

EVENING NETWORKING EVENT
FUTURE DIRECTIONS FOR ALCOHOL RESEARCH
The IKON Gallery
1 Oozells Square, Brindleyplace, Birmingham B1 2HS

5.30pm  Registration and networking

7.00pm  Keynote talk by Professor Eileen Kaner, Professor of Public Health and Primary Care Research at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne

7.30pm  Debate

9.00pm  Event Closes